I was at a meeting recently with some EA staff and they commented on the caring and pastoral ethos evident in our school. This is very important to us—it was lovely to have it recognised by others.

Check out Netaware, and see if your online knowledge is up-to-date! The digital world our children inhabit changes so quickly, talking to them about what they are doing online is the best way to keep them safe. O2 NSPCC Parents vs Kids quiz
